SULZER AND GLYNN IN ACTION TODAY

They Will Resume Contest Over New York Governorship—Sulzer Wants to Get Question Before Courts.

Albany, N. Y., August 17.—Both Governor Sulzer and Lieutenant Governor Martin H. Glynn, who claims to be acting Governor, spent a quiet Sabbath. Mr. Sulzer did not go to church as usual, but spent most of the day at the bedside of his stricken wife and was much encouraged at the favorable report of her nurse. A few friends and advisers called during the day and he enjoyed a short automobile ride late in the afternoon.

Mr. Sulzer was informed of the escape of Harry K. Thaw from the Matamoras State Hospital for the Criminal Insane, but did not discuss the matter.

Mr. Glynn's day was spent quietly at Cedar Hill, his summer home. He expressed interest in the news of Thaw's escape and inquired exactly for details, but offered no comment. He, however, sent telegrams to Superintendent Kibb of Matamoras and to Superintendent Riley of the state prison department, requesting detailed information of the escape.

Break in Rivalry Expected Today. A sharp break in the holiday armistice is expected when the trustees of public buildings held a session tomorrow. The members of the board are the governor, lieutenant governor and speaker of the assembly. It is understood that Lieutenant Governor Glynn, Senator Wagner and Speaker Smith will hold the meeting without consulting Governor Sulzer, who in any event would be unable to hold a meeting of his own for lack of a quorum.

Lawyers who have studied carefully the text of Governor Sulzer's final letter to Lieutenant Governor Glynn, express the opinion that it forebodes an attempt by Mr. Sulzer alone to bring into the courts the question as to whether he or Lieutenant Governor Glynn is the lawful chief executive, pending the decision of the court of impeachment.

The old report is revived that this will be done through the medium of a pardon. It is said that Governor Sulzer may pardon himself and then term his term nearly expired and that by a mutual understanding with the lieutenant governor, he will decline to recognize the pardon, thus opening the door to court action by means of mandamus or habeas corpus proceedings.

"Boss" Barnes on the Situation. A statement by William Barnes, chairman of the Republican state committee, concerning the situation of Harold J. Hiram, minority leader of the assembly, in opposing the impeachment resolution, has caused considerable speculation. It is pointed out that Mr. Barnes has his approval entirely on the inadequacy of the time given assembly to study the report of the Frankfurter committee and that his emphasis on this condition that Mr. Glynn now undoubtedly is the acting governor.

Some of the Glynn partisans contrast the Barnes statement to be tantamount to serving notice that political opponents are not expected to yield in the face of the attitude of the Republican senators in the trial.

There are 12 Republican senators and only 10 votes in favor of Governor Sulzer would prevent impeachment. This assumes that all the justices of the court of appeals and all the senators will take part in the trial.

CORPSE OF MRS. NANCE TAKEN TO KNOXVILLE

Charlotte, N. C., August 17.—Robert T. Baker, of Washington, D. C., spent the night in this city having in charge the body of Mrs. Nance, who was killed by her husband at Hamlet, Florida, August 15. The body was being taken to Knoxville, Tenn., where it was to be buried. Mrs. Nance was the wife of a man named Nance who was a member of the Tennessee legislature. It is reported that Nance had been in the habit of taking money from the bank belonging to his wife and that he had been charged with insanity or that he had ever been confined in a sanitarium.

MANY REPRESENTATIVES WON GRATITUDE OF STATE IN WORKING FOR TAX REFORM

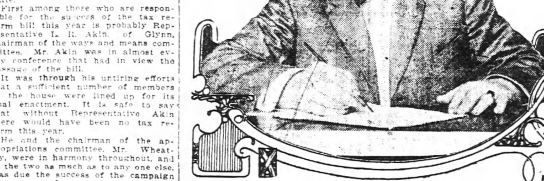

BEN FOWLER, of Bibb. MINTER WIMERLY, of Bibb. WALLACE MILLER, of Bibb.

DR. L. S. LEDBETTER, of Polk. L. J. COOPER, of Ware. R. N. HOLTZCLAW, of Houston.

By T. B. Connor.

It will be long before the state of Georgia pays its debt of gratitude to those who have made the tax reform bill this year a reality. The bill, which was passed by the legislature, is a landmark in the history of the state. It is a bill that has been the result of the efforts of many representatives of the state, who have worked hard to bring about this reform. The bill is a bill that has been the result of the efforts of many representatives of the state, who have worked hard to bring about this reform.

L. R. AKIN, of Glynn, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee.

He gave his most hearty support to it. He aided tax revision with voice and his vote throughout and proved of invaluable service to the cause.

Representative R. N. Holtzclaw, of Houston, is another legislator who did not have very much to say, not taking a prominent part in the debate, but who yet aided the cause of tax reform mightily by his influence and his vote. Whenever there was a vote taken on tax revision, Holtzclaw was invariably found to be on the right side of the question.

Cooper Worked Hard. A member of the ways and means committee who had great weight in giving success to the cause was L. J. Cooper, of Ware. He differed with his colleagues, Mr. Crawley, on the subject, but he had made a careful study of the question and was convinced that tax reform was not only in the interest of his country, but was returning its lands at considerably higher valuations than the adjoining counties, but of the state at large.

When on Wednesday he made a strong speech favoring the bill, and sent to the senate, and when it was returned by the senate in its final form he fought for it all the harder.

Babies' Voices Vied With Music of Organ

Concert by Famous English Organist Thoroughly Enjoyed, Nobody Seemed to Mind Opposition.

Even the babies went to hear the English organist, Eugene Wyatt, at the Auditorium-Armory yesterday. They had to go, because their parents and grandparents went, and there was nobody to leave them with at home. Consequently Mr. Wyatt met with an opposition concert, in which both sides may be said to have triumphed with honor.

Mr. Wyatt is the first of a number of noted organists to be presented by the Atlanta Music Festival association prior to the selection of an official organist, and his recital was very measurably in keeping with what might have been expected of a musician of his standing.

The recital was in all respects an auspicious beginning of the series, which will be educationally all the more valuable in the opportunity they will afford to compare the distinct, glowing qualities of a group of noted musicians.

The last numbers were in religious style as it is expressed by the Russian composer and then by the French, and a significant feature of the series was the performance of an acher by the recitalist, as Joplin as his name suggested, and evidently inspired in it a moment of the composer's best flight of fancy and musical imagination.

THREE NEGROES KILLED AND TWENTY ARRESTED

Fights Starting Over "Crab" Games and in "Blind Tigers" Give Police Busy Sunday.

Three negro men murdered, one dead, two wounded and more than twenty under arrest for participating in free-for-all cutting scrapes in the Sunday crime record established in Atlanta yesterday. The police authorities state that it nearly reached the high record for crime in the city, and are of the opinion that most of the trouble started in "blind tiger."

Peter Johnson, a negro desperado who has repeatedly been in trouble for fighting, stabbed and killed Munoz Harris, a negro living at 222 Butler street, at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. In Harris' home, Johnson is said to have been drunk, but the cause leading up to the murder are unknown. Up to a late hour last night the murderer was being sought by the police.

John Henry Wilkinson was stabbed and killed according to the report of a witness at 11 o'clock Sunday afternoon by R. C. Smith, at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. The victim was a negro living at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. The victim was a negro living at 11 o'clock Sunday morning.

Peter Jackson, colored, was shot and killed by two negroes, one of whom, a negro living at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. The victim was a negro living at 11 o'clock Sunday morning.

More than twenty negroes were arrested for fighting in alleged blind tiger, and a large number of bottles of beer were confiscated by the officers.

After trying to shoot his wife Lillie Cheving, and failing, the sole reason that his pistol would not fire, Cheving, a negro living at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, secured a heavy arm and attempted to shoot his wife. The woman escaped and fled down the street calling loudly for the police. Someone telephoned police headquarters and Call Officers Milam and Palmer were dispatched to the scene.
